

(iii) Take any other appropriate actions in the best interests of the Government.

(3) Refer the matter to the agency suspension and debarment official.

(e) The HCA or his or her designee shall, in his or her best judgment, recommend or direct an administrative or contractual remedy commensurate with the severity and effect of the violation.

(f) If the HCA or his or her designee receiving information concerning a violation or possible violation determines that award is justified by urgent and compelling circumstances, or is otherwise in the interests of the Government, he or she may authorize the contracting officer to award the contract or execute the contract modification after notification to the Head of the Agency in accordance with agency procedures.

(g) The designee of the HCA referenced in paragraphs (a), (b), (c), (d), and (e) of this subsection must be an individual at least one organizational level above the contracting officer and be of General Officer, Flag, SES or equivalent rank.

3.104-12 Ethics program training requirements.

(a) Subsection 27(l) of the Act provides that the head of each Federal agency shall establish a procurement ethics training program for its procurement officials. The program shall, as a minimum—

(1) Provide for the distribution of a written explanation of subsections 27 (a) through (f) of the Act to such procurement officials; and

(2) Require each such procurement official, as a condition of serving as a procurement official, to certify in writing that he or she is familiar with the provisions of subsections 27 (b), (c), and (e) of the Act and will not engage in any conduct prohibited by such subsections, and will report immediately to the contracting officer any information concerning a violation or possible violation of subsection 27 (a), (b), (d), or (f) of the Act as implemented in the FAR.

(3) Certification made under section 27 as originally enacted and implemented in the FAR do not satisfy the certification requirements of subparagraph (a)(2) of this subsection. Agencies may use Optional Form 333 at 53.302-333 to obtain the certifications required by subparagraph (a)(2) of this subsection.

(b) Contractors, subcontractors, consultants, experts, or advisors (other than competing contractors) are responsible for establishing a procurement ethics training program for individuals in their employ who may serve as procurement officials on behalf of a Federal agency. The program shall, as a minimum, comply with subparagraphs (a)(1) and (a)(2) of this subsection.

Subpart 3.2—Contractor Gratuities to Government Personnel

3.201 Applicability.

This subpart applies to all executive agencies, except that coverage concerning exemplary damages applies only to the Department of Defense (10 U.S.C. 2207).

3.202 Contract clause.

The contracting officer shall insert the clause at 52.203-3, Gratuities, in solicitations and contracts with a value exceeding the simplified acquisition threshold, except those for personal services and those between military departments or defense agencies and foreign governments that do not obligate any funds appropriated to the Department of Defense.

[61 FR 39200, July 26, 1996]

3.203 Reporting suspected violations of the Gratuities clause.

Agency personnel shall report suspected violations of the Gratuities clause to the contracting officer or other designated official in accordance with agency procedures. The agency reporting procedures shall be published as an implementation of this section 3.203 and shall clearly specify—

(a) What to report and how to report it; and

(b) The channels through which reports must pass, including the function
